Supporting St Wilfrid's Hospice

strength to strength. Held in the bohemian quarter of Bosham full of community spirit, showcasing the work of artists from the south coast and further a field. There is a children's trail, a raffle, refreshments, tours of Mike and Helen Jelly's garden pub as featured on local news. All doing their bit to a raise money for St Wilfrids Hospice and the Appledram Centre.

Starting at 38 North Rd,
the trail then visits the following gardens in North Rd, 36, 34,32,30,28,26,24,18,16,14,12,10,2,1,7,9,23
and 17&19 in Williams Road

Visitors are reminded that when viewing exhibits in private gardens they do so entirely at their own risk. Children are very welcome, however we do ask that parents / carers ensure that they respect the gardens and the exhibits.
