The Emsworth Business Association are conducting an online Emsworth Shopping Survey

The EBA represents more than 100 small business and service providers in Emsworth and district. We are 11 years old this year and continue to promote the town as an excellent place to live, work and play. The results of this survey will assist us in planning ahead and ensure that Emsworth town centre remains a special place.

25 September - 5 October Havant Literary Festival

Havant Literary Festival

A fantastic line-up will appear at Havant Literary Festival this year, including Fay Weldon, Maggie Gee, Stella Duffy and Louis de Bernières & the Antonius Players. Claire Armitstead, Literary Editor of The Guardian will talk about the role of the critic and the Environment Editor of The Independent, Michael McCarthy, will discuss his new book 'Say Goodbye to the Cuckoo'. Crime writer Simon Brett will appear at the Station Theatre, Hayling Island and Emsworth crime devotees will find plenty to tempt them at 'Crime, Cake & Coffee', at The Brookfield Hotel! The Milton Consort, direct from the Globe Theatre, will perform Shakespeare's finest sonnets interspersed with masque music played on lute and flutes. A whole strand devoted to Arthur Conan Doyle includes a talk by local historian Madeleine Selby at The Brookfield Hotel on 30th Sept. Tickets from Havant Arts Centre 023 9247 2700 www.havantartscentre.co.uk
