HAVANT PASSION PLAY

The crucifixion
and resurrection of Christ

Be part of something wonderful this Summer!

Havant Passion Play are hosting a free event for the public on Saturday 15th and Sunday 16th August 2015 which will be performed in Havant Park for the community by the community.

Churches across Havant have united together to tell the story of Christ and will be performing a large scale production specially written and directed by acclaimed actor James Burke-Dunsmore in the heart of Havant!

A Passion play is a dramatic presentation of the last week of the life of Christ here on earth and the action will unfold here this summer as the crowds witness Christ's entry to Jerusalem, his last supper with the disciples, his arrest and crucifixion and then his glorious resurrection.

Passion plays have been performed all over the world for hundreds of years - and now Havant has its very own story to share with the people of Havant and this truly inspirational story will bring the real meaning of Christ to life in the heart of our town.

Cast and Volunteers needed

We invite you to join the drama and be a part of this special production so we can bring the community together through the medium of acting, music and song - no experience is required!

I Can't Act! - Can I? "With sore toes, two gammy knees and a neck problem to deal with, I went along to the Passion Play Workshop and discovered that my limited talents can be used after all, and guess what? It was challenging and exciting, thought provoking and emotional and dare I say? Fun!"

We Need You!
