Emsworth Seafood Week

Emsworth's first ever Seafood Week went down a storm!

The pubs and restaurants were exceptionally busy and the week was enjoyed by residents and visitors alike. This man, photographed in the Coal exchange wore a Japanese Sushi T-shirt to celebrate.

Highlights of the week included:

John Tweddell's talk on the Rise and Fall of the Emsworth Oyster Fishery, a sell out,

Tasty fish dishes in the pubs and restaurants,

The Emsworth Sunday Market and Heritage Trail Guided Walk.

John leading the guided Heritage Trail Walk along the foreshore

If you visited during Seafood Week please take a few moments to complete the visitors' feedback form which can be viewed HERE

14th November Wine Tasting at the Brookfield Hotel

COOL WINES FROM CHILE

Tutored Wine Tasting and Dinner

The Brookfield Hotel, Emsworth
Saturday 14th November 2009

No longer just the source of cheap supermarket wines, Chile is currently one of the world's most exciting wine destinations offering a real diversity. Perhaps most excitingly there are new super cool wine regions coming on stream, from Limari in the North through to the Bio-Bio Valley in the South, that are producing some thrilling wines from a whole range of grapes.

This is a great opportunity to taste some of these new 'super cool' wines from the Concha y Toro stable – wineries such as Cono Sur and Vina Maycas del Limari – followed by a three-course dinner with accompanying wines.

Sparkling Wine Reception 7pm
Tutored Tasting At 7.30pm

£28 per head

Including sparkling wine reception, tutored tasting wines and a three-course dinner with accompanying wines.
