News from the Emsworth Business Association

The Association has:

- A new Chairman, Carol Haskett Director of GCS Computer Systems Ltd, elected at the AGM in March.
- A new website www.emsworth.org.uk launched in February

The Association has recently completed:

The organisation of the refurbishment of the memorial bus shelter in the square.

As far as it is known this is the only bus shelter war memorial in the UK - After the 1st World War the men of Emsworth wanted a useful memorial to their fallen comrades, and so endowed two beds in the local Emsworth Victoria Cottage Hospital to allow people access to medical treatment free

Then later, after the 2nd World War, the next group of returning servicemen had the same feelings. They did not want "just a lump of stone"; they wanted something of use. The Royal British Legion branch in Emsworth co-ordinated the efforts and it was felt a covered seating area on The Square, where they all used to congregate and chat, would be appropriate. Therefore in December 1950 the unveiling of the "covered seating on The Square" took place with standards and banners of many Emsworth organisations on parade. It was an occasion of great civic pride in Emsworth and acknowledgement of the efforts and sacrifice of its young.

The erection of a flag pole in The Square.

Many months after the idea was first proposed a flag pole has been erected in the square. Funded by the Association and erected by the HBC Engineer Works Team, Carol Haskett, chairman, said,

"I'm really pleased that this has gone up at last. It's taken quite a time but means that for the first time we can now fly the flag in Emsworth and I'm especially pleased that it will be there for the St George's parade in April."

The official inauguration was held on March 16th

Preparations are well advanced for:

The St George's Celebrations later this month

The return of Dragon Boat Racing to Emsworth in August

The Emsworth Christmas Celebrations in December

The Association would like to thank all the volunteers and supporters for their help and especially the help given by the men and women of 47 Regiment RA based on Thorney Island and for the generous sponsorship of our events by The Springfield Nursing Home and Coop. Without the continued support of Emsworth's businesses these events would not happen.

Warblington Church Restoration

Many of you will already know that Warblington Church was damaged by a fire caused by an electrical fault in January.

Work on restoration is progressing well and should be complete by early in the summer.

Progress can be followed at:

Emsworth Student, Fiona Mikel is hoping to to study Drama in London after performing at the Spring, Havant, in April

Fiona has lived in Emsworth for all her life, taking dance lessons at Emsworth's Melana School of Dance and performing non-stop at Portsmouth High School.

She studied Theatre and Performance at Warwick University and graduated last July with a first class honours degree. When she was not studying Fiona spent much of her time at University taking part in student plays performed in the Warwick Arts Centre and went on to be selected two years consecutively as one of ten plays to be performed at the National Student Drama Festival) from across Britain. The productions won numerous awards, including The Sunday Times awarded 'Best Show' for 'By The Bog of Cats' where she played the lead female, a contemporary Medea. Her performance was described by Hannah Miller, the Head of Casting for the Royal Shakespeare Company, as "an exceptional, deeply felt and detailed performance.

When she wasn't on stage a huge presence was missing. In particular the relationship between her and her daughter lived on stage in a way which was quite extraordinary for two young women of roughly the same age ".

Talented Fiona went on to win the 'Best Actress' at the University of Warwick in 2010. and has just finished performing the lead role in 'Return to the Silence' a devised play at the Pleasance Theatre in London, which The Guardian's Lyn Gardner described as 'An assault on the senses...the company conjures a complete world...a distinctive calling card from a company to watch'.

Now Fiona is performing in with the Fell Swoop Theatre Company in 'Most Drink in Secret', a three-man adaptation of Chekhov's classic 'The Seagull', which has been invited to perform at the The Lowry Manchester, The Tobacco Factory Bristol and The Lyric Theatre London, and for one night only, at The Spring in Havant on Saturday April 16th. BOOK ONLINE

After rounds of auditions all this year, Fiona has been short-list for both RADA and Guildhall School of Music and Drama to study Acting from September. She now has an anxious wait to hear if she has been successful in gaining a place.
