An Evening with Jacqui Dankworth: In Concert

Thursday 2nd May, 8pm
Tickets: £25

For one night only, the award-winning vocalist, Jacqui Dankworth, appears in concert at The Spring.

In this very special and intimate concert, Jacqui is joined by US pianist Charlie Wood, for an evening featuring a sparkling collection of songs drawn from her highly praised studio albums, alongside tracks that have inspired her incredible career.

Firmly established as one of the country's leading jazz vocalists, Jacqui's live concerts showcase her unique versatility and effortless mastery of a wide spectrum of genres, drawing on jazz, folk, soul, and blues, as well as her acute sensibility as a songwriter and lyricist.

"Had I not been sitting about three feet away from the action, I would have suspected some kind of electronic trickery because the arrangement was so complex, the timing so nifty and Ms Dankworth's vocal control so exquisite"

Austen's Women: Lady Susan by Dyad Productions

Friday 3rd May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15, £14 concessions, £5 under 25s

From the award-winning creators of Austen's Women, A Christmas Carol, I, Elizabeth, Female Gothic, Christmas Gothic, and A Room of One's Own.

Austen's Women are back - in a brand-new show! Devil-may-care Lady Susan, the coquettish black widow, hunting down not one, but two, fortunes; oppressed, rebellious daughter Frederica; long-suffering sister-in-law Catherine; family matriarch Mrs De Courcy; and insouciant best friend, Alicia.

Return to the Regency (or rather, Georgian) in this darkly comic tale of society and the women trapped within it; their struggles, their desires, their temptations, and manipulations - and at the vanguard, Lady Susan: charming, scheming, witty, and powerful; taking on society and making it her own. But has she met her match?

Based on Jane Austen's first full-length work from 1794, and created entirely from letters, the piece is performed by Rebecca Vaughan and directed by Andrew Margerison. Created in collaboration with The Old Town Hall, Hemel Hempstead.

Dean Friedman

Saturday 4th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £28

Hailed by critics and fans alike as one of the finest songwriters of his generation, Dean Friedman has achieved legendary, pop-icon status for chart-topping hits, Ariel, Lucky Stars, Lydia, McDonald's Girl and more.

A consummate entertainer, Friedman will be performing songs from throughout his four-decade career, including familiar radio hits and fan favourites. Invite family and friends and join Friedman for an evening of powerful, poignant and hilarious songs about the ordinary and extraordinary lives we share.

"With his mix of jaunty ditties, sentimental ballads and bashful charm, Friedman is the pop troubadour of choice." The Scotsman

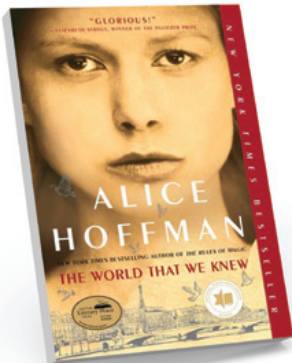

Book Group - The World That We Knew

Thursday 9th May, 7:15pm

Tickets: £7

The World That We Knew by Alice Hoffman was Longlisted for the Andrew Carnegie Award. Berlin in 1941 is a place that spells danger for Hanni Kohn and her twelve year old daughter, Lea. It is a renowned rabbi's daughter, Ettie, who offers hope of salvation. This is the story of how three unforgettable women must act with courage and love to survive. Elizabeth Strout writes, 'It opens up the world ... in a way that is absolutely unique.' The discussion will be led by Peter Hammond.

Conception: Mary Shelley - The Making of a Monster by Clair / Obscur

Friday 10th May, 7:30pm

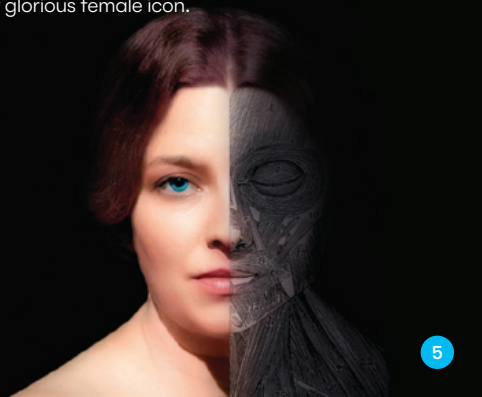

Tickets: £15

October 1840: Gothic writer, Mary Shelley's first pilgrimage back to Europe in twenty years in defiance of her father-in-law's express wishes.

Conception charts a profound voyage of self-discovery for this exceptional writer in her maturity. A journey that trips through the Romantic poetry of Mary Shelley's contemporaries – P B Shelley, Byron, Keats - soaring like the Skylark and plummeting the depths of Darkness to a final, bare, and brutal confrontation with her creation on the Mer de Glace.

Powerful and essential storytelling celebrating another glorious female icon.

The Freshwater Five by Deadman

Thursday 16th May, 7:30pm
Tickets: £15

In 2011, five fishermen on the Isle of Wight (Jamie Green, Jon Beere, Daniel Payne, Scott Birtwistle & Zoran Dresic) were sentenced to a total of 104 years for conspiracy to import £53m worth of cocaine. They have always professed their innocence. A tale that has long divided a community on the Isle of Wight, this powerful new play seeks to heal the divide and explore the state of our coastal communities.

Inspired by the wildly popular Guardian Today in Focus podcast The Freshwater Five incorporates spectacular storytelling, verbatim accounts, inventive stagecraft, poetry, and song. The South Coast cast and creatives delve into subjects of classical and contemporary smuggling, deteriorating coastal communities, immigration and folklore as well as examining this ancient profession's place in our times.

Fresh from a sell-out coastal communities tour in 2023, award-winning Isle of Wight company Deadman is bringing it to a wider audience. Led by artistic director Samuel Bossman, Liam Patrick Harrison's stage play launches a detailed and rich theatrical investigation into the men's tragic downfall.

Boo Hewerdine

Saturday 11th May, 8pm
Tickets: £16

For over 30 years Boo Hewerdine has been considered one of the UK's finest singer-songwriters. As lead singer of seminal band, The Bible, through to his subsequent solo work and long-time collaboration with the incredible Eddi Reader he has become something of a national treasure.

He is in demand as a writer, producer, and performer. Over a hundred of his songs have been covered by the likes of KD Lang, Kris Drever, Chris Difford, Heidi Talbot, and Hannah Rarity. His last album 'Before' was recorded with supreme Danish multi-instrumentalist Gustaf Ljunggren.

"Boo Hewerdine shows himself yet again to be one of Britain's best songwriters." Americana UK

The Sounds of Simon - A Tribute to Simon and Garfunkel

Saturday 18th May, 8pm
Tickets: £18

The Sounds of Simon is a tribute to the wonderful music of Simon and Garfunkel.

Lose yourself to nostalgia with such classics as Mrs Robinson, The Boxer, The Sound of Silence and Bridge Over Troubled Water as well as all the others that have established Paul Simon as one of the most successful songwriters of all time.

Paul and Art are played to perfection, bringing in elements of their famously fractious relationship, as well as replicating the beautiful harmonies flawlessly. This is a wonderful show filled with excellent music, nostalgia, and a genuine love for some great musicians.

"The lead singers have excellent diction, wonderfully balanced harmonies and above all a friendly approach to audience contact. What a treat to listen to live sound with perfect volume." The Melton Times.

James Alderson and Friends

Thursday 23rd May, 8pm
Tickets: £13

Join award-winning comedian James Alderson and his comedy pals for another evening of hilarity on your doorstep.

Over the years some household names have appeared on the line ups, but whether it's someone off the telly or a rising star, you'll always leave with aching sides and laughers-jaw - and that's a promise! Check the website for the acts who will be appearing with James.

Jacob and Drinkwater

Friday 24th May, 8pm
Tickets: £14

Join Jacob & Drinkwater as they celebrate 10 years of the duo with a UK tour throughout May and June 2024.

With a core sound built around acoustic guitar, double bass, and vocal harmonies their live show has been described as “intense and spellbinding” by Folk Radio UK. All their energy, musical chemistry and spontaneity drawing comparisons with the virtuosic pairing of John Martyn and Danny Thompson.

Their strongly folk-influenced sound is full of vitality, dynamism, and surprising musical departures. Jacob’s sweeping vocals never fail to captivate, delivering many a spine-tingling moment; the fluidity and precision of his fingerpicking underpinned by Drinkwater’s nimbly rhythmic double bass. At times sweetly soaring, haunting, percussive, and driving, the layers of depth a perfect counterfoil. The added complement of stirring vocal harmonies nicely rounds off the mix.

With the duo now living 11,000 miles apart they only tour the UK once a year - so catch them while you can!

“Inventive
and thrilling.”
R2: Rock n Reel

“Exactly the kind of deep intense and brilliant thing we’ve come to expect from Jacob & Drinkwater.”

Fire and Rain & American Pie

Saturday 25th May, 7:30pm
Tickets: £20

A heart-warming musical homage to the great American singer-songwriters of the late 60’s and early 70’s, featuring beautiful timeless songs from James Taylor, Carole King, Simon & Garfunkel, Joni Mitchell, Don Mclean, Bread, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, America, The Byrds, Mamas and Papas, Carly Simon and more!

The show has a relaxed acoustic style, matching the spirit of this era, when many of these artists were neighbours in the Laurel Canyon suburb of L.A. With an intimate nostalgic narrative including images from that time, the show is at times poignant, sometimes amusing, always delightful.

Produced and hosted by singer-guitarist Paul Wheeler (TV Director, ‘Live at the Apollo’) with Sophie Langham (West-End actress-singer and formerly of Eastenders).

“Amazing! Captures the zeitgeist of the era perfectly. A unique musical journey and a must-see for all lovers of good music. 10/10!” Kid Jensen, Broadcaster

Taking you on a walk down memory lane with all the classic songs that you remember!

The Everly Brothers and Friends Tribute Show

Friday 31st May, 8pm
Tickets: £15

The Temple Brothers, officially the UK's No.1 Tribute to The Everly Brothers as voted for by the National Tribute Music Awards 2017 are proud to announce the return of their Theatre Show, produced by themselves. The show is dedicated to the music of one of the greatest harmony duos the Everly Brothers. Just as the Everly Brothers were, the Temple Brothers are real life brothers, and that is why their voices blend so perfectly and sound uncannily like the Everly Brothers. Truly not to be missed.

With live acoustic guitars, flawless harmonies, a truly impressive outing for all, accompanied by special guest star tributes. All the hits are performed in the original keys that The Everly Brothers recorded in their early years, so you don't lose any of that magic that the Everly's created.

Adolf and Winston by Living Spit

Thursday 6th June, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15, £14 concessions, £5 under 25s

Two Actors. Two World Leaders. One Black Dog.

Winston Churchill looks in the mirror, realises that only he can steer our great nation through its darkest hour and steels himself for the hard road ahead.

Bristol, 2023.

Craig Edwards looks in the mirror, realises that, despite his advancing years, he stills looks good in a pair of union jack speedos and steels himself to take on the role of a lifetime.

Clevedon, 2023.

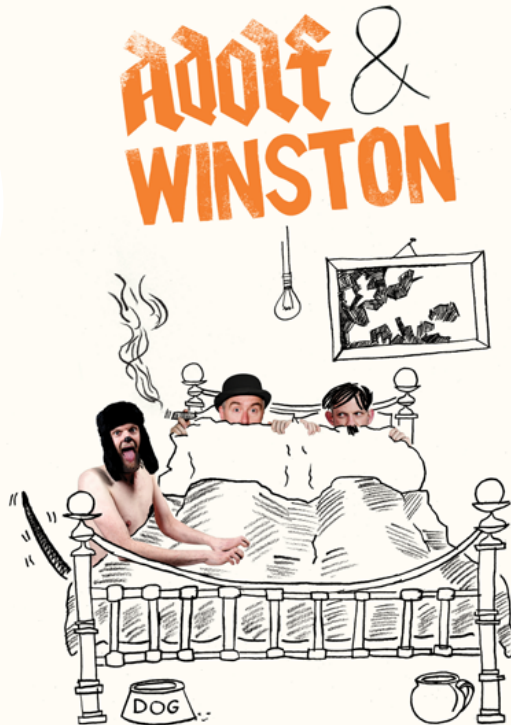

Stu McLoughlin looks in the mirror and realises that he'll have to grow a little moustache.

Characteristically unafraid to tackle colossal, morally questionable subjects in an essentially inconsequential way, Craig & Stu are back walking the tightrope of taste and decency with another slice of poorly researched history. But will either of them escape from this war alive?

Riotous, rebellious, and ridiculously rib-tickling by turns, Living Spit's Adolf and Winston leaves other two-man comedic, musical retellings of the history of the second war in the shade, and poses the question "Who thought this was a good idea, again?"

Suitable for ages 16+. Contains very strong language.

Tom's Midnight Garden by HumDrum Theatre

Wednesday 12th - Saturday 15th June, 7:30pm

Tickets: £14

1958. Tom's brother has measles, so Tom is packed off to stay with his aunt and uncle. Things get worse when Tom finds they live in a small flat in a converted Victorian house...with no garden. Feeling trapped, frustrated and lonely, Tom tries to make the best of things.

One night he hears the grandfather clock in the downstairs hall strike thirteen. Thirteen? Thirteen o'clock? What does thirteen o'clock look like?

Unable to see the clock-face in the dark, he opens the back door to let in the moonlight...
...and finds a huge garden.

And Hatty. Hatty who feels trapped, frustrated, and lonely...

Based on Philippa Pearce's beautiful Carnegie Medal-winning novel, Tom's Midnight Garden tells the story of a friendship that crosses the bridge of time.

This amateur production of "Tom's Midnight Garden" is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals Ltd. on behalf of Samuel French Ltd.

Based on Philippa Pearce's beautiful Carnegie Medal-winning novel

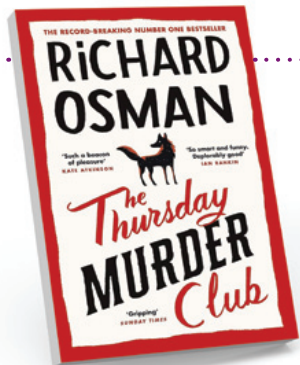

Book Group - The Thursday Murder Club

Thursday 13th June, 7:15pm

Tickets: £7

Richard Osman's The Thursday Murder Club is set in a peaceful retirement village where four unlikely friends meet once a week to investigate unsolved murders. A brutal killing takes place on their very doorstep, a live case they decide to solve. This novel has become a phenomenal success, as have its sequels, but why? 'Thrilling, moving, laugh-out loud funny' says Mark Billingham. This discussion will be led by Valerie Bird.

All Things Must Pass Orchestra

Thursday 20th June, 8pm

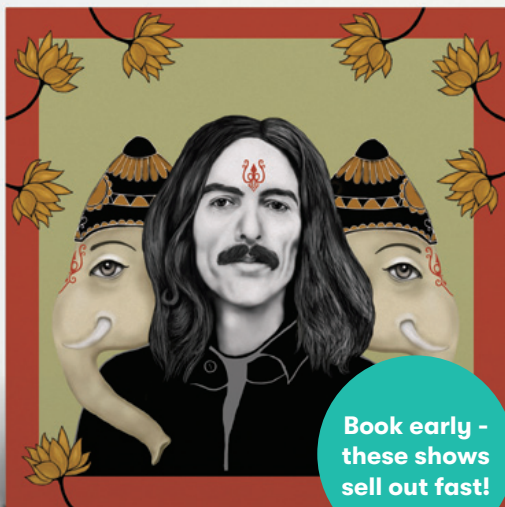

Tickets: £20, £18 concessions

A 10-piece band devoted to bringing to the stage the music of George Harrison in all its ingeniously kaleidoscopic and inspirational glory, has been playing sell-out across the country since 2013.

For their 2024 tour, the Brighton-based band, led by singer and multi-instrumentalist Alex Eberhard has assembled a set consisting of a fascinating selection of songs mainly drawn from the album All Things Must Pass, but also featuring other material from Harrison's incredibly diverse musical output, such as the celebrated masterpieces Something, While My Guitar Gently Weeps, Here Comes The Sun, and the anthemic My Sweet Lord.

Musical gems from four decades of sublime song writing – all hand-picked and performed with love and attention to detail by the All Things Must Pass Orchestra.

Featuring luscious three-part harmony vocals, electric and acoustic guitars, a superb horn section and a super-tight rhythm section, the band can interpret and bring to life the “Quiet Beatles” richly textured music as it is heard on his landmark recordings. Come and celebrate George’s timeless music with the “All Things Must Pass Orchestra”.

Pygmalion by The Bench Theatre

Thursday 4th - Friday 5th July,
Wednesday 10th - Saturday 13th July, 7:30pm

Matinee: Saturday 6th July &
Saturday 13th July, 2:30pm

Tickets: £13, £11 concessions

The captivating story of George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion has been entertaining audiences for decades, delving into themes of gender, class and the importance of education. Eliza Doolittle, a young lady from London's impoverished streets, aspires. After an accidental encounter with Colonel Pickering and Professor Henry Higgins, Eliza approaches Higgins for speech lessons to improve her lot in life.

Pickering wagers that Eliza cannot be presented as a lady amongst the upper echelons of London society, and during this life-changing adventure, Eliza learns difficult and often embarrassing lessons that cause her to question Higgins' preconceived assumptions about gender roles and social class. Eliza is brilliantly irrepressible as she defies the stereotype that Higgins attempts to fit her into, leading to an explosively humorous, caustic, and gentle satire.

Bench Theatre invites you to enjoy Shaw's wonderful sense of character, his keen ear for dialogue and his sparkling wit as Eliza attempts to shed her humble beginnings. And for all the play's rumbustious energy, there is a perhaps unexpected poignancy as this very funny play approaches its conclusion.

Book Group - The Color Purple

Thursday 11th July, 7:15pm

Tickets: £7

The Color Purple by Alice Walker won the 1983 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction. The American Deep South between the wars is a harsh segregated world, where Celie, a fourteen-year-old whose beloved sister, Nettie, has run away, writes letters to God, 'to know what is happening to me'. She was raped by the man she believes to be her father, her two children taken from her, and she is then given in marriage to Albert. It is with the arrival of Shug Avery, the singer and magic woman from his past, that her life begins to change. The discussion will be led by Caroline Hammond.

Edinburgh Previews - Chloe Petts and Steve Bugeja

Wednesday 17th July, 7:30pm
Tickets: £10

Don't miss out on Edinburgh Previews – your front-row seat to the future of comedy! Be the first to experience a thrilling mix of emerging talent and established acts as they preview their latest material before hitting the big stage at Edinburgh Festival.

Petts, hailed as “one of the most compelling young comics” and “clearly a rising star” by critics, has wowed audiences with her sold-out shows at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and Soho Theatre. Meanwhile, Bugeja, known for his sharp wit and razor-sharp millennial voice, co-created the ITV2 sitcom “Buffering” and has made numerous TV appearances. With their impressive credentials and undeniable talent, Petts and Bugeja promise an evening of laughter and entertainment you won't want to miss.

Book Group - The Go-Between

Thursday 8th August, 7:15pm

Tickets: £7

'The past is a foreign country ...' is the well-known first line of L.P Hartley's The Go-Between. It refers to one long hot summer when Leo goes to stay with a school friend in Brandham Hall, and begins to act as messenger between Ted, the farmer, and Marian, the beautiful young daughter of the owners of the hall. Many years later our protagonist reflects on the consequences of his actions which have haunted him into adult life. This is an unforgettable glimpse into the strictures of Edwardian society. This discussion will be led by Gladys West.

Claytime! by Indefinite Articles

Saturday 25th May, 11am & 2pm

Tickets: £10, £9 for groups of 4 or more

The award-winning Indefinite Articles present their work for the very young: Claytime, a play with clay, where the audience are invited to participate.

Come to a place where the earth's natural material meets with children's imaginations: a world of fabulous forms, amazing animals, and morphing monsters. Each Claytime is totally unique - creating its own world, its own characters and its own stories drawn directly from its young audience. This show is made with and for 3-6 year olds.

"An out-of-the-ordinary theatrical experience."

Orchestra of Water by The Enchanted Cinema

Tuesday 28th May, 2:30pm

Tickets: £10, £9 for groups of 4 or more

Following last year's sell-out tours of The Snowman, join 2024's #orchestraofwater with multi-instrumentalist composers, Gareth and Kieron - The Enchanted Cinema.

Each show kicks off with a fun and inclusive warm-up before getting stuck into rehearsals and performances of live scores to 100 years of beautiful animation featuring instrumental scores (harp, keys, viola, guitar, concertina, aquaphone) with YOUR sound FX, xylophone, or harp contributions.

Inspired by the spirit of lakes, streams and sea, this show features some of the most captivating scenes from 100 years of animation including Studio Ghibli's Princess Mononoke (1997), Studio Ghibli's The Red Turtle (2017), Lotte Reiniger's The Adventures of Prince Achmed (1926), Where the Wild Things Are (1973), Hedgehog in the Fog (1975) & the powerful, poignant Butterfly (1972). The show is ideal for children aged 6+ and grown-ups of all ages.

Back after their sold-out show The Snowman

Wonka

Wednesday 29th May, 11am & 1:45pm

Tickets: £6

Based on the extraordinary character at the centre of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Roald Dahl's most iconic children's book and one of the best-selling children's books of all time, "Wonka" tells the wondrous story of how the world's greatest inventor, magician and chocolate-maker became the beloved Willy Wonka we know today.

Let their imagination run wild with our role play area and The Magic Library: Magic Maker's Exhibition

Free entry

Step into a realm where imagination knows no bounds at our upcoming interactive showcase, The Magic Library: Magic Maker's Exhibition.

At The Spring, the wonders extend beyond the pages of books. With our well-equipped children's play area, laughter fills the air as little ones explore and play, all while parents unwind nearby in our welcoming café.

Exhibitions

Our exhibitions are open during our standard opening times.
Entry is free and no tickets are required.

The Magic Library: Magic Maker's Exhibition

From July through to September
Mezzanine Gallery

Building upon the success of our beloved Christmas 2022 performance by Little Bulb, 'The Magic Library', this free interactive exhibition provides children of all ages with tools and helpful tips to create their own magical story.

Close your eyes and choose a word of inspiration from the World of Words fountain, then follow one of Willamina, The Word Wizardess's tried and tested magic story structures or go off on your own literary adventure to create your story plot. Finally, don't forget to visit the illustration station to have the option of adorning your newly created fantastical tale with pictures! You can either take your story home or post in Head Librarian Lionel Letterman's Magic Library Letterbox to have it displayed as part of the exhibition to inspire other aspiring Word Wizards who visit.

Open Exhibition 2024: Community

Tuesday 16th July - Saturday 14th September
Sadler Gallery

The Spring's annual Open Exhibition is now open for submissions! Please visit our website for further details on how to enter.

Whether you're a professional artist, a keen photographer or just starting out, we encourage everyone to get creative and take part in submitting their work.

The work featured in the final exhibition is chosen by a panel of artists, curators and industry experts, and the overall winner is announced at the Open View.

Our theme this year is COMMUNITY

What does Community mean to you?

We're inviting submissions of artwork that truly captures the spirit of community. Let your creativity flourish, drawing from what holds significance for you and your bonds with the people, places and things you cherish.

Deadline
for entries:
Wednesday
5th June,
2024

Adult entry: The adult entry costs £5 per artwork to enter, and the chosen pieces will be displayed in the Sadler Gallery. A £100 prize is offered to the winning artist.

Children's entry: We're thrilled to open the entries again this year to younger ones too! The children's category is FREE to enter and is open to all aged 17 and below.

Winner

Heritage Walks

Back by popular demand, we're starting a new series of Heritage Walks!

The aim of each walk is to identify evidence of human activity in the landscape and think about what this might tell us about the past. Our guide, Nigel Brown, will help reveal features and suggest interpretations, focussing each week on a broad theme or topic.

Walks start at 10:30am and last around 1.5 to 2 hours. Open to all and requiring just a modicum of fitness, tickets are just £6.50 and will need to be purchased ahead of the walk.

Tickets:
£6.50

A Time of War: A walk around Sinah Common Tuesday 4th June

As we approach the 80th anniversary of the D-Day landings we look at the incredible military history of our area and the particular part it played in the events of 1944. The circular walk will start and end at the free car park by the Sinah Common Heavy Anti-Aircraft site on Ferry Road, Hayling Island (PO11 0BY).

Taking on the Iron Age Tuesday 18th June

With Midsummer just a few days away we take to the hills to explore an impressive Iron age hill fort on The Trundle, above Goodwood racecourse, and think about this period in our history. We will meet at the Seven Points car park, west of the fort and at the top of Town Lane where the Weald and Downland car park is signposted then drive to the top).

Oh, we do like to be beside the seaside! Tuesday 2nd July

Is the seaside really good for us? The fascinating story of the marketing and development of British seaside resorts is explored as we stroll along Hayling seafront. The walk will start and end at Beachlands bus stop.

Cutting your cloth: The English wool industry Tuesday 16th July

English wool was the most prized in medieval Europe and, for centuries, formed the basis of our economy. As we stroll around the beautiful downland village of Buriton we will look at the workings of this industry and its impacts on everyday life. This walk will start and end at the car park outside Buriton church (GU31 5RT).

Langstone: Messing around in mud Tuesday 30th July

A stroll along the shore to look at the origins and development of Langstone harbour and its impact on our area. The walk will start and finish at The Spring.

We are home to Havant Local History Group who meet on the first Saturday of the month, 10am - 11.15am.

These sessions are free and you can join them in the Harrison Room for their open meetings:

Saturday 4th May:
The Royal George - led by Denise Bennett.

Saturday 1st June:
Annual Walk - History of Warblington Castle - led by Nigel Brown.

Saturday 6th July:
Who's Your Father? - led by Jo Purcell.

Saturday 3rd August:
Annual trip - Lumps Fort WW1 Centre on Southsea - led by Chris Pennycook.

Useful information

We are open Monday - Saturday: 10am – 4pm and from one hour before evening performances. For our café opening times please see page 2.

We are also open on some Sundays and Bank Holidays for specific performances, opening one hour before the start of a show, but please check in advance.

We'll do everything we can to make your visit to The Spring enjoyable.

We want everyone to be able to take advantage of the events, activities and services we offer. To make it as easy as possible we:

- offer 24-hour booking on our website at www.thespring.co.uk.
- staff our box office during all opening hours so tickets can be purchased in person or over the phone on 023 9247 2700.
- offer concession tickets to under-18s, students, people who are over 65, retired or benefit claimants.
- provide complimentary tickets for necessary companions to individuals with disabilities.
- have a number of accessible seats and wheelchair spaces available in the theatre. Please let our staff know you require an accessible seat when booking.
- have an induction loop installed for those with hearing impairment.
- welcome Registered Assistance Dogs.
- let our audiences know about our activities and events, in accordance with The Spring's Data Protection Policy.

If you're unable to make an event for which you have purchased tickets, please let us know. Where possible we will re-sell them for you for a small charge. We're sorry not to be able to give refunds or exchanges unless we have been able to resell your tickets.

If you have any questions, suggestions or if there is anything we can do to make your visit easier, please contact us via the box office on 023 9247 2700 or via email at info@thespring.co.uk.

Havant Borough Community Lottery
